

SPEAKER BIO

EUGENE PHUA

Legal Counsel - Head of SCM Legal APAC
Corporate and Institutional Banking Asia-Pacific
BNP Paribas

Eugene is the Head of Supply Chain Management Legal at BNP Paribas, where he has overall responsibility for all legal matters relating to the non-recourse receivables discounting and supplier financing business in APAC. He is routinely involved in deal structuring and the negotiation of the most complex mandates for his business line. Prior to joining BNP Paribas, Eugene was associated with Skadden, Arps, and Mori Hamada Matsumoto in Tokyo, and Clifford Chance in Singapore. He is a graduate of the National University of Singapore and Columbia Law School.